

Front-end web Developer

Job description

Better Care, a pioneering company in capturing, managing and processing clinical data, is looking for a Front-end web Developer to join its BC Link product development team to work on the aesthetics, layout and responsiveness of BC Link's front-end applications developed in HTML5 and Javascript on ReactJS.

Studies

Multimedia Engineering / Degree in Multimedia, Computer Engineering / Degree in Computer Science

We offer

- Competitive wage (€ 25,000 - € 30,000 gross / year) with supplements for objectives.
- Flexibility of hours and remote / face-to-face hybrid working day.
- Professional development.
- Training plans.

Requirements

- Domain of JavaScript and some of its Frameworks (preferably ReactJS).
- HTML5 / CSS3 and Frameworks CSS domain such as Bootstrap or Material UI.
- Mastery of design patterns and aesthetic taste.
- Experience working with REST services and structured data types such as JSON and XML.
- Good level of written and spoken English.

We value

- Experiences in similar positions.
- Experience in the medical technology sector.
- Knowledge of project / ticket management tools such as Jira, Trello, Zoho Desk.
- Knowledge of source code management tools such as Bitbucket, DevOps or GitHub.
- Familiar with SCRUM and Agile work methodologies.
- Good communication with the different stakeholders.
- Availability to travel.